

Article 1 - Scope of the general conditions of sale

The present general conditions automatically govern all sales of stays made.

They are an integral part of any contract concluded between the campsite and its customers.

Each customer acknowledges having read these general conditions prior to any reservation of a stay, for himself and any person participating in the stay.

In accordance with the law in force, these general conditions are made available to all customers for information purposes prior to the conclusion of any contract for the sale of stays.
